EGYPTIANS TO OCCUPY PORT SAID TODAY

Port Said, Egypt, (AP)—A 350-man Egyptian police detachment is due in Port Said today to help N. troops keep order during the departure of the last British and French forces.

The Egyptians are the vanguard of more than 1,000 police coming to replace the Suez Canal's northern garrison once more under the rule of President Nasser's Cairo government. The U. N. Emergency force intends to pull out as soon as possible after the British and French, leaving Port Said's administration strictly to the Egyptians. Indications pointed to the complete withdrawal of British and French troops by tomorrow or Thursday. The rapidly dwindling British force was barricaded behind barbed wire at the docks. The Egyptian underground kept up its harassment, killing a French Foreign Legionnaire as he boarded a ship.

A wrangle over who would do the job threatened to delay clearing the debris-blocked canal. The British and French have massed at Port Said apparently will sail with the last of the British-French troops unless their crews are guaranteed protection by U. N. forces.

The two countries have rejected U. N. proposal to leave the salvage ships here to be operated by crews of neutral nations. Egypt says the British and French experts can't stay because she can't guarantee their safety.

The British and French had hoped the U. N. police troops could remain at least until the waterway was reopened—in the aftermath of the British-French troops secured at the northern end of the Suez in their October-November invasion.

But Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, the U. N. commander, said he would get out of Port Said as soon as possible after the British-French withdrawal.

"The sooner the better," he said, "and anyway before Christmas."

Tel Aviv, Israel (AP)—Israeli forces on the Sinai Peninsula today carried their withdrawal to line about 47 miles east of the Suez Canal.

Yugoslav units of the U. N. Emergency Force are occupying the territory evacuated by the Israelis.

Mass Deportation of Jews Reported in Israel Dispatch

Tel Aviv, Israel, (AP)—A plane carrying 78 Jews deported from Egypt landed here today. One passenger carried what he described as an Egyptian deportation order and said he had smuggled it out.

Previous arrivals have said Egyptian authorities took their expulsion orders from them before they left Egypt.

Egypt has denied that it has ordered any mass deportation of Jewish residents.

The latest arrivals said when Israel invaded the Sinai Peninsula Egyptian soldiers and police searched their houses and in some cases took away members of the families for questioning.

Some arrivals said members of their families were beaten.

"They took away all our valuables including wedding rings," said one arrival. "The Egyptians did not hesitate to take clothes which looked good to them. When they took something they would say 'This is for Port Said' or 'This is for the aggression in Sinai.'"

Sylvania Electric To Add New Operation To Titusville Plant

Titusville, (AP)—The Sylvania Electric Products Co., will make change in its manufacturing operations here early next year that will give jobs to about 50 more persons.

A. J. Paucak, the company's manufacturing superintendent, said yesterday that work done for the company at Smithport under a sub-contract with the Backus Novelty Co. will be handled at Titusville. The work is preparing mica for spacing components of radio tubes.

Only key personnel at the Smithport operation will be transferred, Paucak said. The other workers will be hired locally.

Regarding the project the Titusville Herald says:

The operation, the preparation of mica for spacing the components of radio tubes, will be started here as soon as the transfer can be effected, according to A. J. Paucak, manufacturing superintendent of the Titusville plant.

Initial labor requirements, he estimated, would be less than 50 persons.

Certain skill and dexterity necessitates a degree of training for workers engaged in the operation. When the operation is transferred from the Smithport firm, the Backus Novelty Co., where it is presently being done on a sub-contract basis, it will be the third of only three in the widespread Sylvania system. The other two are in Puerto Rico and Brazil.

No new construction will be required here for the transfer. The operation will be set up on one (Turn to Page Ten)

Mechanized Santa On Way To Nixon Family

Waterloo, Iowa, (AP)—A mechanized Santa Claus sleigh laden with gifts for the families of President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon was en route for Washington today. The gifts include hams and cartons of meat, and accessories, and king-sized greeting cards.

The reindeer-decorated sleigh, sponsored by Waterloo industries, left last night and is expected to arrive in Washington late tomorrow.

Eisenhower and Nehru Resume Talks in Washington

Washington, (AP)—President Eisenhower and India's Prime Minister Nehru returned to Washington today after an overnight stay at Gettysburg, Pa., and more than 12 hours of informal conversation on world problems.

The President and his guest left Eisenhower's farm near Gettysburg at 8:52 a. m. EST on the motor trip to Washington. They arrived an hour and 40 minutes later.

No announcement was made as to the subjects taken up by the two leaders during the Gettysburg stay. It was taken for granted, however, that their discussions concerned domestic policies that many countries are following and also international political and military affairs such as those current in Eastern Europe and the Middle East.

As the black limousine in which they returned here stopped in front of the Blair House, the government's official quarters for distinguished visitors, a small crowd gathered. There was some surprise voiced when neither Eisenhower nor his guest left the car right away but instead sat side-by-side in the back seat for perhaps a minute. Apparently, they were only making small talk.

Then Eisenhower alighted first and extended a helping hand when Nehru followed.

Eisenhower gave the visiting Prime Minister a warm handshake and said something only half audible to newsmen, to the effect that he'd be seeing Nehru again soon. (Turn to Page Ten)

Republican Ahead in Race for Rhode Island Governorship

Providence, R. I., (AP)—Republican Christopher Del Sesto, 49-year-old former Democrat, today was Rhode Island's gubernatorial pick by a court test of the validity of votes which brought him victory.

With only 340 absentee ballots still to be counted from the election six weeks ago, Del Sesto led Democratic incumbent Dennis J. Roberts by 509 votes—194,848 to 194,339.

Roberts, seeking a fourth term as governor, threatened court action over the validity of absentee and shut-in ballots.

But Del Sesto declared at a news conference:

"I am the governor now, based on the vote. If they think they're going to take it away from me, they're going to have an awful fight on their hands."

Roberts led by 207 votes after the counting of ballots cast on voting machines Nov. 6. Counting of 10,000 absentee ballots did not start until Dec. 5 because of a state law.

John G. Coffey, counsel for Roberts, took exception to the counting of "certain absentee and absentee shut-in ballots" by the Rhode Island Board of Elections.

He asked the board to discard the ballots on the ground that the Constitution specifically limited voting to election day.

TRAILER MYSTERY

New Kensington, (AP)—An autopsy was ordered today to determine the cause of death of a 34-year-old widow whose body was found yesterday in her trailer home at nearby Kinlock. State police said Mrs. Hazel Conley was believed to have been dead for several hours when her two children returned from school and discovered the body. There were no apparent signs of violence.

SOVIET UNION SIGNS PACT WITH POLAND

By COLIN FROST

Warsaw, (AP)—Poland and the Soviet Union have signed a formal agreement "spelling out many of the technicalities to govern future operations of Russian troops in Poland."

The accord concluded last night followed up the broad agreement reached last month in Moscow during the visit of Wladyslaw Gomulka, Poland's "nationalist" Communist party chief.

Stipulating that Soviet troops are in Poland "temporarily," the agreement declares again that Polish sovereignty will be respected and that Soviet forces will not interfere in Poland's domestic affairs. Many other parts of the agreement read like a pact between the United States and an NATO ally where American troops are stationed.

The agreement elaborates on previous concessions to Poland of veto powers over the size and movement of Russian troops in this country, even on training maneuvers. But key items left subject to later "special agreements" included the size and deployment of the Russian detachments, regulations governing the movement of Soviet troops in and out of Poland and the use of Polish military installations or public utilities by the Soviets. Agreements on these items are scheduled to be worked out within three months.

The earlier Moscow declaration said both countries agreed "that Russian troops must remain in Poland because of 1. German refusal to accept Poland's annexation of East Germany territory at the end of World War II, 2. a lack of 'sufficient guarantees' against the rebirth of German militarism," 3. the presence of Soviet troops in East Germany, and 4. "the existing international situation."

Polish Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz was quoted by Moscow radio as pointing up the absence of a peace treaty with Germany in a dinner speech following last night's signing ceremony.

Another program feature for the evening will be presentation of jewels to the retiring masters of the two respective symbolic lodges.

All members of the fraternity are urged to procure tickets within the next few days from any of the following officers: Maurice Perry, Elbert Miller, Gerald Rowley, Paul Mathis, Andrew Bair, James Nordine, William E. Yeager, Jr. or Albert Kinney.

Working out detailed arrangements for the banquet and program is a committee comprised of Harold Ross, William Coole, Lester Akeley, Elbert Miller, Orlo Johnson, Milton Peterson, William E. Yeager, Jr., and Leo L. Gleese.

Chief Justice Horace Stern, who will retire from the bench on that date, will swear Jones into the top post of the state's highest court.

Stern announced the date yesterday after participating in ceremonies at which Thomas D. McBride, chancellor of the Philadelphia Bar Assn., became state attorney general to succeed Herbert B. Cohen.

Cohen and Judge Benjamin R. Jones, Luzerne County, were elected to the court without opposition in the Nov. 6 general election.

Vacancies were created by the resignation of Chief Justice Stern, and the death last February of Justice Allen D. Stearns.

The chief justice said he plans to retire Dec. 29 rather than await the expiration of his term on Jan. 7.

The 54-year-old McBride took the oath of office administered by Henry E. Harner, commonwealth secretary, and then addressed nearly 200 well-wishers.

Philadelphia, (AP)—Although the weather still lacks the frost, crust and crispness that raise this time of the year to its festive best, make no mistake about it—Pennsylvania is in the Christmas mood.

With but one short week to go before the great day itself, people are partying, shopping, glad-handing, and slowing away and packing up at an exhausting pace.

Take the unregenerate late shopper. None is so certain, on Nov. 30, that he can get exactly what he wants on Dec. 20. But now he is flapping from store and store, choked with dismay that he cannot get what he seeks, fighting off the inevitable compromise on something second best, and he may be lucky to get that.

Fortunately, in most instances, the holiday spirit triumphs over disappointment, temper tantrums and that plain pooped feeling. As for parties, they're going full tilt now, and it would seem that nobody is being overlooked.

Indoors and out, carolers spread cheer, rejoice in the deep meaning of the season, remind the listener of Dickens, of fairyland, of bobbed adventures in years ago, of stout Bavarian burghers ruddy with good health and good beer, of the old, old tales about the Christmas tree.

In Harrisburg, a 50-foot tree has been set up on the plaza of the main Capitol building. Gov. and Mrs. Leader will preside at ceremonies at noon tomorrow when the tree will be illuminated.

Symbols of faith, of hope, of humanity, of childhood's wonder, of something better than life has to offer to most people all the rest of the year, these bathe the last full days of December with immense lustre.

"400 Block" Merchants Make Merry

Warren's increasingly popular "400 Block" merchants and families were snapped by Sparky Saylor as they enjoyed their annual Christmas party in Knights of Columbus lodge rooms. Lou Chimenti, tonorialist, was general chairman and ladies served the luncheon. From left, back row, are: J. A. Sanden of Sanden's Red & White, Charles Russo of Russo's Plumbing, Everett Siefert of Siefert's Jewelers, Kenneth Washington of Service Hardware, Robert Thomas of Cunninghams Restaurant, Louis Chimenti of Chimenti's Peruke Parlor. Front row, from left, Ruby Staples of Walkers, Carol Peterson of Toy Center, Earl Patchen of Patchen Market, now closed; Ines Olson of Walkers, Jo Thomas of Cunninghams and John Bevevino of Bevevino's Electric. An unexpected visit from Santa and an impromptu carol sing highlighted the affair.

F. B. I. Agent To Deliver Talk at St. John's Day Banquet

Frank P. Griffie, assistant special agent in charge of the Pittsburgh office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, has been secured as guest speaker for the annual St. John's Day banquet being arranged by joint committees of North Star Lodge 241 and Joseph Warren Lodge 726, F. and A. M.

The affair will take place at 6:30 p. m. Thursday, December 27, in the cafeteria of Beatty Junior High School, with the program following in the school auditorium and Mr. Griffie using the topic "The FBI and Free Masonry."

SECRETARY IS IN FAVOR OF VISIT BY TITO

Washington, (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today there may be some streamlining of the U. S. divisions in Europe, but that there is no plan to reduce American military strength there.

Dulles made this statement at a news conference. It was in response to questions about speculation that American forces in Europe might be cut substantially in order to get Soviet forces out of the satellite states of Eastern Europe.

The fact is, Dulles said, that there has been no change in the Eastern European situation sufficient to justify a reappraisal of U. S. military dispositions in Europe.

Dulles then said the U. S. government is very open-minded toward any suggestion that might be made as to the future status—neutrality or otherwise—of Eastern European countries like Poland and Hungary.

The United States, he said, would like to take away the fear of Soviet leaders that their system would be endangered if they facilitate the process of increasing independence for the satellite countries.

At his first news conference in six weeks, Dulles made these other points:

1. Sympathetic consideration is being given to the idea of inviting President Tito of Yugoslavia to visit the United States. Talks between Tito and President Eisenhower would serve a useful purpose, Dulles said.

2. The United States stands by its offer of Aug. 26, 1955, to underwrite a permanent peace settlement between Israel and the Arab states but tensions over the Suez situation and the British-French and Israeli clashes with Egypt have dimmed the prospects for any early peace settlement.

Push Inquiry Into Weekend Robbery At Sheffield High

Warren County law enforcement officers today were pushing their investigation of a $440 robbery sometime over the weekend from a safe at Sheffield High School.

Most of the loot, some $340, was in silver.

The thieves entered the building either Friday night or Saturday, according to State Troopers. Entrance was gained by smashing a window in the auditorium. A glass door was broken through when the robbers entered the principal's office where the old fashioned floor safe was kept.

School officials discovered the loss Sunday. Sheffield Police Chief Robert Carlberg conducted preliminary investigation Sunday and then called in Sheriff's department and State Troopers.

The robbers used school janitor's tools to pry open the metal container. The tools were found scattered around the office.

General Increases Are Provided For In New Bell Tariffs

The Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania today filed with the Public Utility Commission at Harrisburg revised tariffs providing for general increases and changes in rates to become effective December 11.

The rates are designed to provide the company with approximately $6,000,000 in annual income, after payment of taxes, in accordance with the recent decision of the Commission.

In many cases throughout the state the local calling areas have been extended.

Locally, the new tariffs provide for the elimination of charges on calls from Warren to Youngsville.

The reduction in unit costs and extensions of local calling areas for those customers in the central offices affected were part of the rate changes originally filed by the company on January 13, 1956 and have not been withdrawn in spite of the order of the Public Utility Commission allowing approximately 1/3 of the increased revenues sought.

Typical new rates for business and residence customers served by the Warren central office follow:

Private Line	.....$4.25
Two-party Line	.....$3.30
Four-party Line	.....$2.70
Business
Private Line	.....$7.55
Youngsville customers calling Warren telephones will now dial the code figure "8", when they hear the "zip-zip" tone, they should give the desired Warren number to that operator.

Warren, Pennsylvania
December 13, 1956

Dear Editor:

I wish to extend very sincere congratulations to the Warren Area Joint School Board for the appointment of the officers elected at the December 10 meeting, especially, the president, Melvin G. Keller, and the vice president, Lee M. Schaeffer; and with very high respect—Ernest Miller, secretary for four years; and Charles Frantz, the treasurer.

Gentlemen, I have known "Bonney" Keller and "Marty" Schaeffer for years, but I have not seen either for a long, long time, so these congratulations must also go to them at this time. Everyone realizes they were the main dissenting votes against the proposed Swick site. Yet, gentlemen, you took the defeated team of the year and made them the "top team of the year". For this, you deserve the highest of commendations, because it ferrets out the fact, that you must respect the past efforts of these gentlemen, or else—you would not have awarded them their honor. So, their past efforts must have been highlighted, only, by what they attempted to accomplish for the youth of past days, today, and tomorrow.

Yet with honor, sometimes comes defeat—with special reference to your vice president, Mr. Schaeffer. He, very sincerely published a letter to the citizens, before your meeting, quoting various facts and figures against the proposed available accesses, and of bus service that would be required. The reply, to him in local news this week, made him totally wrong.

So now, again, it is important that other facts should be brought up—facts, that really are understandable by the worker—the guys who have to pay—and facts alone, because they have not too much time to play around with figures, and especially those in the higher amounts—give many considerable trouble to even think about them.

One fact that must be confronted is the large gas line of the Pennsylvania Company, across the Swick property, which must be moved—and only as additional expense for this new school on this site.

Then comes the association of a golf course with the high school. That could be nice, even though we are very backward in regards to the playing of night football, as about every hamlet now is years ahead of us in this respect.

The hill site could be graded off, terraced and landscaped at an enormous expense, but we would also have to include the removal of a gravel pit. How could it possibly be abolished by dynamiting.

grading, and planting of trees? I do not believe it could be, since the Pennsylvania Department of Highways—for the past 25 years—have not been able to restrain hill, or landslides, on Market street, extension and in Pleasant township—in the vicinity of the former Sherwood Refinery.

Seniors, especially, in school are considered men and women—ready to enter world's life—or living. Yet, gentlemen, among these many females and males, you, yourself, know that at many times, either for personal, or family reasons—there is a must that they should go shopping in the business center. With the limited bus service—by virtue of the number of miles that was quoted as minimum, and now must be walked, you can readily see what a handicap such a distance from the business center could mean.

Whatever way the Swick property would be graded level, terraced, or finally landscaped, you can not possibly get to it by walking, without going up a grade, or steps, or both, unless you would rise a ski-tow, or an escalator.

The Board has now voted to proceed with the architectural firm in Erie, of whom one of the four members—Edwin William Werle—happens to be a W. H. S. graduate of the Class of 1925. He was a good football player—he has been a very successful man, and has won high acclaim in the architectural field.

But, gentlemen, it still boils down to the point where it should be competitive bidding by all architectural firms for any site that would be selected.

Just plain facts, without figures, in the thousands or millions, is what the rank and file would like considered. Everyone, 100%, agree for a complete new school.

The people, whom each of you represent, should guide your conscience and commitments, as you proceed to press this issue against their will.

Signed—
Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Lowrey,
I am in full agreement with the Irate Teenager. As long as there isn't anything for the teenagers of Warren to do evenings there is going to be trouble. The parents tell us they never had things to do when they were young but they lived in a different age. Today the parents themselves are going out half of the time to clubs and lodges. Are we teenagers just supposed to sit home doing nothing. Why can't the Spot be opened every night and a juke box put in. Almost every college has a place like the Spot for the students to go in the evenings. You never hear of "gang wars" in college. Sure we have an ice rink now but is it big enough to accommodate all the kids of Warren. All the parents say is we can't build a swimming pool, a roller rink, or an indoor ice rink it costs too much money. What if a son or daughter of one of these parents was hurt in one of these fights. Would the parent still think it was too much money for his son or daughters safety. Maybe it isn't the job of the parents to keep the teenager occupied but if they can put money out for their enjoyment they can surely help the teenagers out. All the money that goes into beer joints in this town could just as easy go into some civic project.

Yours truly,
Another Irate Teenager.

He further states that when reporting completed Conservation Practices, you must have all supporting seed, fertilizer and lime bills, etc.

POLITE OFFICER

A brand new resident in the community called the editorial office this morning, and she had nothing but praise for the Warren police force. The example she cited was that last evening she was Christmas shopping up town, and came out of a local drug store, her arms laden with packages, ready to step into a taxi, when a very polite police officer, who was standing on the corner, walked over and opened the taxi door for her. The lady was very much impressed with this act of kindness, and wanted us to be sure and mention it.

Cooney Stillwell Band Plays for Dance Friday

Christmas time is with us once again and brings along the usual set of Holiday parties. One always looked forward to by the younger set is the Beaty Jr. High formal dance held this year on Friday, December 21 at the YWCA ballroom with dancing from 8:30 to 11:30.

Playing for this year's festive frolic is the new ensemble formed by leading trumpeter Cooney Stillwell. Cooney, "featuring music you've forgotten in a style you can't forget", has formed a new dance band to cater to the interest in good dance music. With a motto of "rhythm is our business" the Stillwell stompers have played regularly in this area, and are to appear in Youngsville this week.

Cooney relies on a fine library of the old standards with a touch of the latest hit tunes. These are rendered with his open and muted trumpet.

St. Paul Churchmen Hold Annual Supper And Sing Festival

The annual Christmas meeting and twelve supper of the Augustana Churchmen of St. Paul's Lutheran church was held in the church parlors Thursday evening, with a good turnout of members and their families.

At the conclusion of supper, everyone joined in singing familiar carols and a number of Swedish hymns appropriate to the season.

During the business session, a donation was made to the Ed Stokes Fund sponsored by the Times-Mirror, and members decided to sponsor a team in the Church Basketball League. Election of officers was then held, resulting as follows:

President, Clifford Terry; vice president, G. M. Borg; secretary, Lawrence Ekey; treasurer, Carl Lundahl.

The president appointed Robert Carlson to handle publicity and Carl Danielson to the flower fund.

A delightful Christmas program was made complete with singing of carols by David Lundahl and Bobby Colter.

Santa Claus also appeared in the person of Albert Mattison, who read a paper, "Should Children Believe in Santa Claus."

Hosts for the evening were Carl Danielson, Robert Colter and Lawrence Carlson.

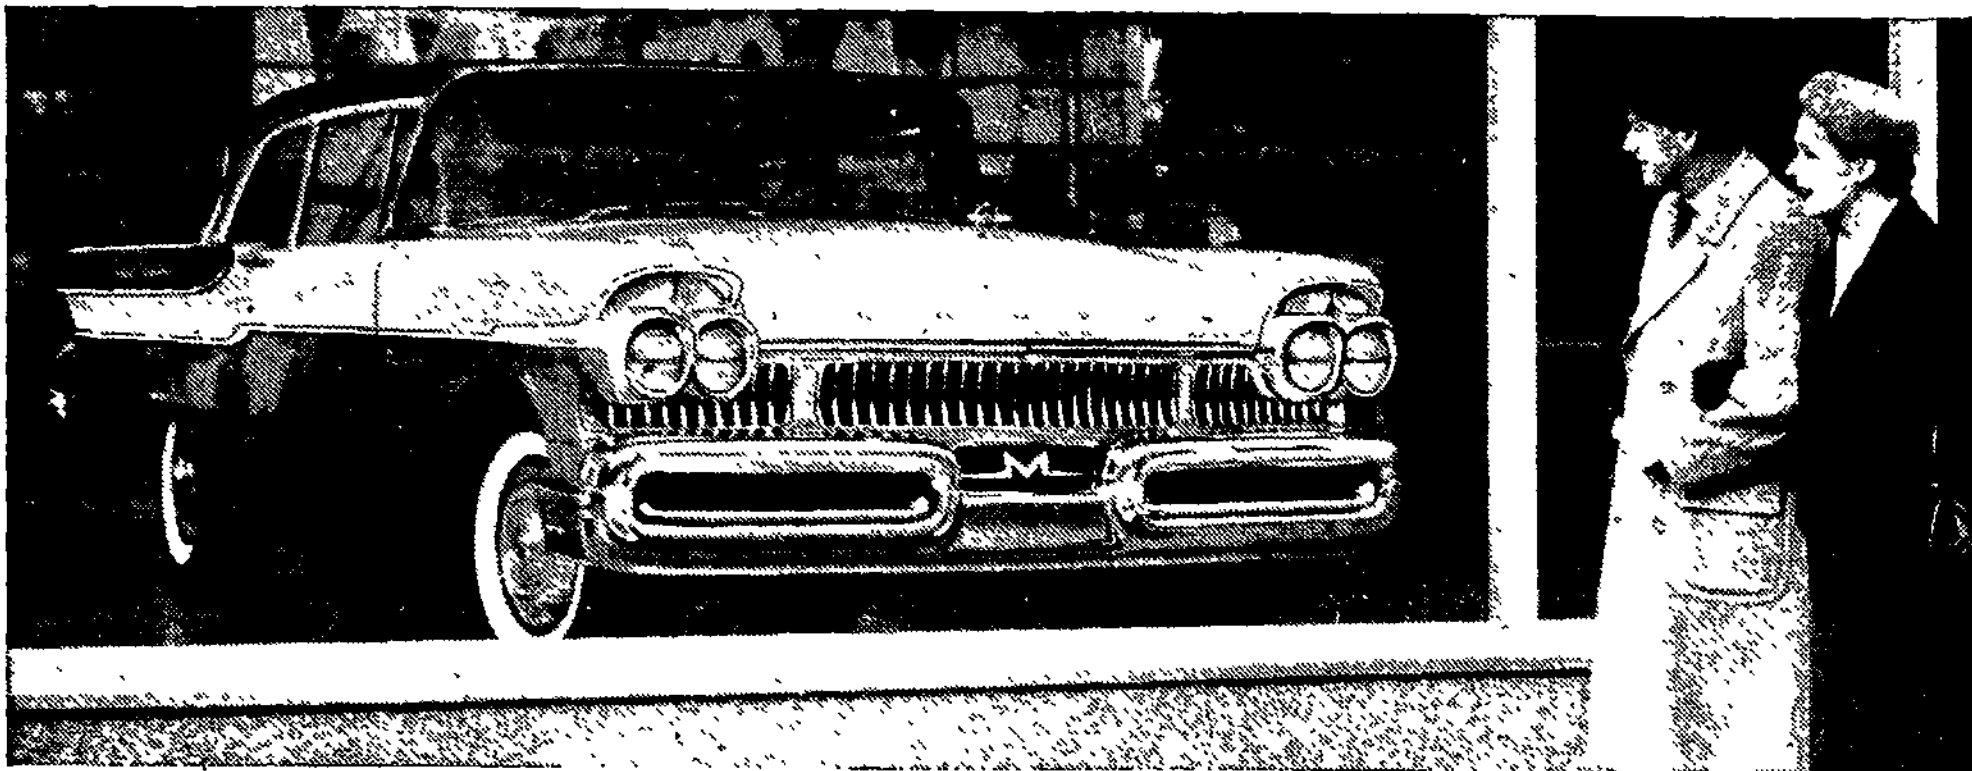

YOUNGSVILLE

Youngsville—Mr and Mrs Orval Borton, Robert Dillman, Russell Dunn, John Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. James Cable were chaperones for the YMS freshman class square dance, when music was provided by Pete Pepke's Band, and refreshments were served by the PTA. The elementary gym was decorated in red and green and a large Christmas tree was the focal point for a gift exchange.

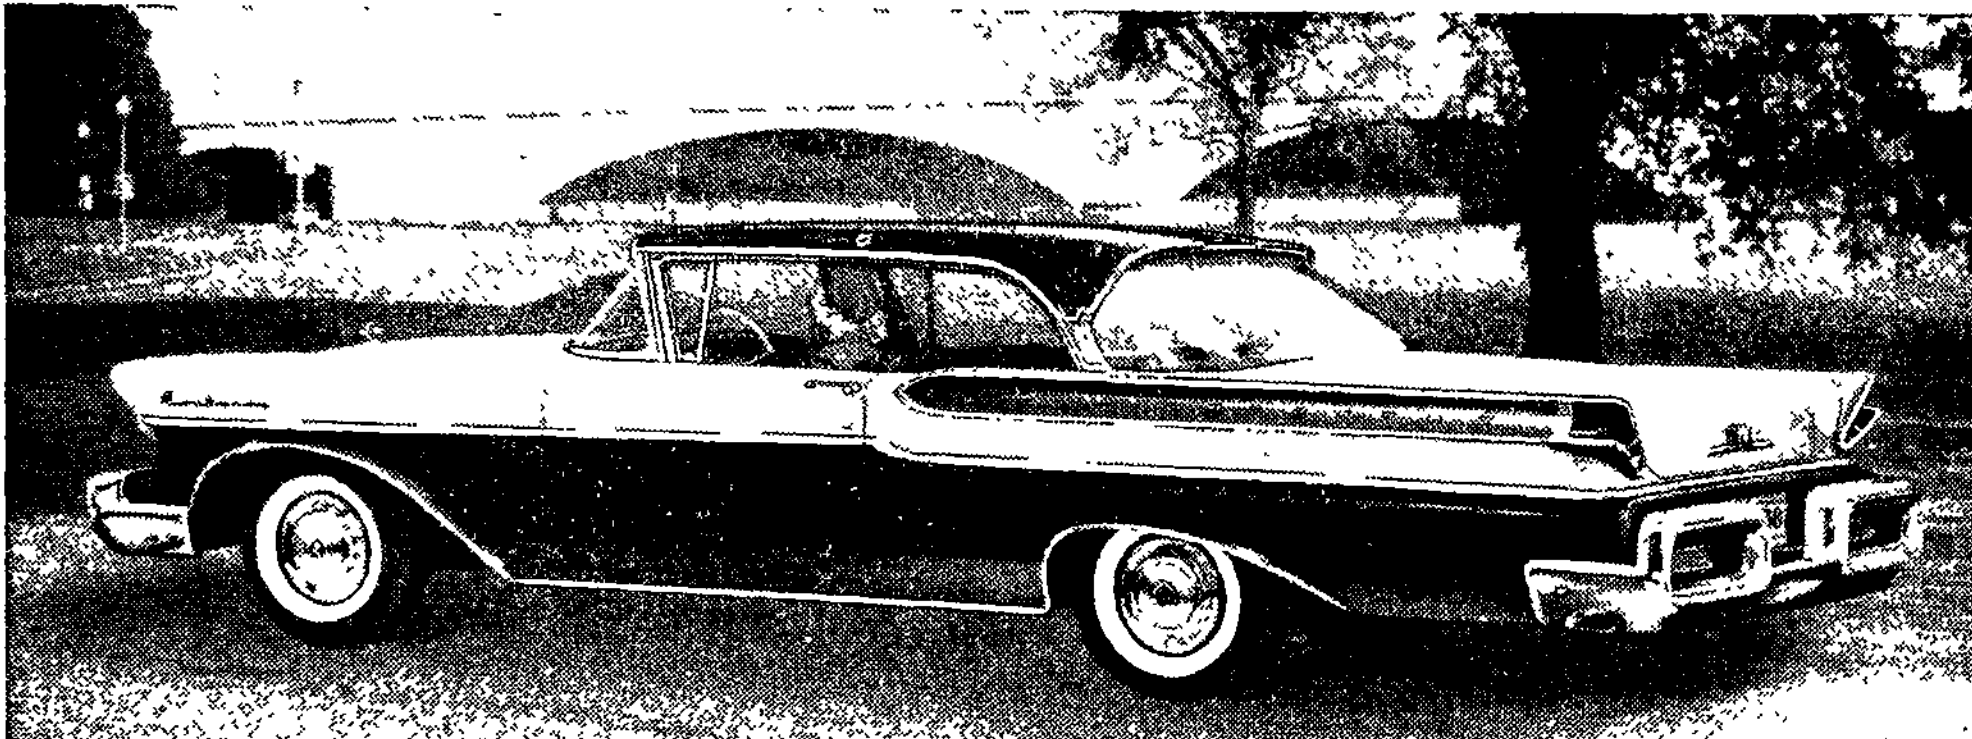

Twenty men attended the regular meeting of Saron Brotherhood at the Lutheran church, when an old fashioned Swedish lunch included kory and herring, rye and white bread, home made Christmas cookies, and Swedish coffee. The committee consisted of the Brothers Leo, Edolph and Kenny. The following were elected to serve as officers of the group: President, Carl Rosendale, secretary, Jimmy Feirn, treasurer, Don Abraham.

Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship held a party at the church Saturday evening. After decorating the Christmas tree in the sanctuary, they enjoyed games, refreshments, and a general good time in the dining room. Sunday evening, the group attended the concert given by the Boy Choir in Grace church in Warren.

DON'T BE A WACKY WALKER!

Are you a wacky walker?
Because so many persons are, the National Safety Council calls on pedestrians to stop walking themselves to death—especially during December, when pedestrian deaths are highest.

Longer hours of darkness, Christmas shopping, haste, and holiday drinking by both pedestrians and drivers increase pedestrian accidents and deaths in December, the Council said.

Pedestrian safety will be stressed during December through a special campaign, "Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents," which was launched this month and will continue through 1957, the Council says. Emphasis also will be on speed, night driving and drinking.

The purpose of the campaign is, first, to encourage public officials to step up the attack, and, second, to stimulate citizens to back the attack on traffic accidents.

Last year 8,200 pedestrians were killed by motor vehicles, the Council said, and in many of these accidents the driver of the car was not at fault. Often at night the driver of a car traveling at a comparatively low speed cannot see the pedestrian in time to avoid hitting him.

If the car is traveling 34 miles an hour—about 50 feet a second—and the driver sees the pedestrian 100 feet away, it is almost impossible for the driver to stop in time. And the pedestrian only has two seconds to escape being hit—unless the driver changes his speed or direction!

A special study of holiday accidents, made by the Council, shows that one-third of the pedestrians killed during the last Christmas holiday contributed to their deaths by crossing between intersections, stepping from behind a parked car or walking on a roadway. Victims were principally older persons. Four out of 10 were 65 years of age or older.

RUSH ON AT POST OFFICE

Strange as it may sound, after a month of warnings and reminders about the rapid approach of the holiday season the Christmas rush is on in full force at the Warren Post Office. A glance through the windows into the sorting and distributing sections this morning revealed Yuletide mail piled high in every nook and corner. In justice to the regular employees and the additional help it is pleasing to be able to report that they are keeping up with the avalanche of mail and it is being sent on its way almost as fast as deposited.

Count your blessings . . . and share them with those who have far fewer this Christmas season. Support the Salvation Army Appeal. The wonder and warmth and magic of Christmas make all of us better human beings and the world a better place. Help give a "Merry Christmas to all" by your support of The Salvation Army Christmas Appeal.

The annual Warren High School music department Christmas Carol Festival presented at beautiful Beatty auditorium Monday evening again proved a delightful musical treat for those persons fortunate enough to have had tickets. Our congratulations to the directors, Harry Summers, Carroll Fowler, members of the choir, choraleers, orchestra and others who participated.

The Christmas issue of "The Match," printed in appropriate green ink for students and faculty at Beatty Junior High School, has made its appearance, and it is our pleasure to extend congratulations to the editorial staff for an interesting and informative school publication.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revelings, and such like: of which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.—Galatians 5:21.

Wrong is wrong; no fallacy can hide it, no subterfuge cover it so shrewdly but that the All-Seeing One will discover and punish it.—Rivarol.

Here and There

Still on the subject of Christmas greetings from far and near, there's the one from Don Taft, former U. S. Forest Service official, and outdoorsman extraordinary, who was transferred some months ago from the Warren office to New Mexico, with headquarters at Silver City. Before leaving he had hoped to make a call to the editorial office of the paper, since he had been a frequent and valued contributor to its columns for years. He found himself too busy! occupied to take time out for the call, so he writes: "Sorry I didn't get into your office before the western move. I miss bringing those Warren Field and Stream Club, Boy Scout and other news items into your office, and your fine cooperation in printing the same. Wonderful country out here, but I'm afraid we spent too many years in Warren county to adjust to a dry and arid area. We have sunshine every day, but still I like the snow at Christmas season. Have had a lot of experience—been over to Old Mexico, have joined up with the Archaeological Society and have a few days of successful digging for Indian artifacts."

From another former well known resident in the far west, Forest W. Waite, 521 W. Rillito Street, Tucson, Arizona, civic leader in Warren for many years, and long time president of the borough council, comes an interesting and colorful greeting in the form of an illustrated booklet on "Arizona Highways." The front cover is entitled "A Desert Christmas Wreath," with a view of the vast Arizona landscape in the background, "the joint effort of a father and son as their idea of Christmas in Arizona." The back cover is entitled "Riders in the Desert Evening," showing three horsemen exposed in silhouette. Subjects covered in the booklet are "Portrait of Five Lakes," "Skies Over Slick Rock," "So Warm the Winter Sun," and "This, Too, Is Arizona." The color typography in the book just absolutely defies description.

★ WASHINGTON COLUMN ★

Senate Should Explode With Personality and Action

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The Senate should explode with personality and action during the upcoming session. This'll be a welcome change, too, because the Upper Chamber's activities have been rather drab during recent years.

Even the operations of the late arch-conservative Bob Taft appear somewhat flamboyant when contrasted with the dainty, pink-tea show the senators put on the last session.

There are many reasons for expecting a more lively meeting of this heretofore great debating society. Some youngsters with a real potential for colorful and dynamic action were letting the area behind their ears get dry.

Then, too, there wasn't much to get excited about last session, what with peace, progress and prosperity soothing the land.

BUT THE MOST important inducement for the senior solons to get off their padded filibusters is the wide-open race which exists for the presidential and vice presidential nominations of both parties four years hence.

At this stage no one on Capitol Hill is conceding that Vice President Nixon has the GOP presidential nomination locked up. And, of course, the GOP second spot is wide open. The same goes for the Democratic party nominations, with Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) possibly having a similar kind of inside track for the nomination that Nixon enjoys.

Senator Kefauver, in fact, will be one of the men most likely to try to pep up the Senate show. He has always worked hard to keep his performance lively and interesting. It's reported that he wants to take over the Senate antimonopoly investigation, which could be turned into a feature attraction.

YOUNG, handsome Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), who scared the daylight out of Senator Kefauver at the national convention, by almost grabbing the V.P. spot, is another one who'll be trying to put some juice into this session.

Senator Kennedy's national reputation is mostly based on the appeal to women, authorship of a best-selling book, a good family background and an outstanding war record. He has yet to build a solid reputation as a forceful Senate leader. Illness has hampered him. But he is sure to try to win a new recognition in the Senate to take advantage of his national political potential.

In the same category of young senators who will be trying to enhance budding national reputations are Senators Albert Gore (D-Tenn.), Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.).

On the other hand, such eager personality and policy middle-of-the-roads as Senators Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) and Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) are likely to be lost in the big performance this term.

THE COLOR on the Republican side is more likely to come from such newcomers as Jacob Javits of New York and Thurston Morton of Kentucky.

After a stint as U.S. ambassador to India, Sen. John Sherman Cooper is returning to the Senate. He never set that body on fire when he was there before. But he has continued to win national respect for his abilities and is sure to be a big wheel among GOP senators.

Then there's Sen. William Knowland of California, who is an exception among last session's shy solons. He became better known nationally for what he did and said. He hit numerous national issues hard and won a lot of out-state respect. He has a talent for setting off fireworks when things get dull.

Visiting Nursing Association Has 40th Birthday Anniversary Today

Forty years ago on December 18, the Warren Visiting Nursing Association was incorporated in the court of Common Pleas of Warren county. Although "life begins at 40" in the estimation of some, these past years have been full of life for the Association, its boards of directors and nurses. Those illustrious Warren citizens who were responsible for starting the local organization, which was affiliated with the national organization of Public Health Nursing were: Sarah H. Logan, Clara Stone Craft, G. Clifford Smith, C. T. Conner, Etta H. O'Dell, Mathilda B. Bell, Bertha T. Kitchen, Walter C. Beck, H. V. Hazeltine, M. C. Parrish, Elizabeth S. Beatty and Lillian G. Henry.

In the year 1926, 1219 cases were cared for, this year some 4,150 cases were under care. Mrs. David Stock and her assistant, Mrs. Polly Ayers, are available to anyone in Warren borough who has need of home nursing skills.

Among the many services rendered are baths and backrubs, inoculations and changing of dressings. It is only with the sanction of the patient's doctor that injections of any type are given.

The Association has available sickroom equipment: wheelchairs, crutches, commodes, hospital beds with mattresses, plastic covers, trays, sheets and safety bedrails, and numerous other essential sickroom equipment. These may be borrowed by calling the office.

2417. There is a small rental fee charged to those able to pay. The Warren Visiting Nursing Association is a Community Chest agency. Because of this financial backing the nurse is able to make comfortable many invalids who otherwise could not afford nursing service. Through the generosity of the Needlework Guild's In-gathering, the agency is able to distribute needed bedding and clothing.

During the past 40 years, the Association has broadened its scope manyfold, and it is hoped the years to come will find it rendering a much needed service to the citizens of Warren.

Truth Seekers' Dinner An Outstanding Event

The various committee for the evening are credited with making the Truth Seekers' Christmas party at Grace Methodist church "the one party of the year."

Mildred Schuman was chairman of the dinner group, assisted in the planned tureen dinner by Hazel Chesnut, Odette Gardner, Grace Johnson, Esther Fitzgerald, Mamie Nine, Florence Schatzle, Alice Wright and Mary Fitzgerald. Tables were beautifully decorated with evergreens, candles, sleigh and reindeer, and centered with a basket-bouquet of mums and greens shared by Mrs. McDonald. Responsible for the decorating were Alice Wright, Grace Johnson and Mamie Nine.

Seated were 86 persons, guests for the evening being 20 children from the Home; two matrons, Mrs. Genevieve Colter and Miss Lois Fullmer; the Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Baldwin and daughter, Norma, Jay Krimmel and Nancy Reynolds.

Florence Anderson, with the help of Mary Berdine, Audrey Curtis, Catherine McClement, Jeannette Silke, Peg Johnson, Mabel Kjellin, Eleanor LaPoint, Dorothy Nelson, Hazel Sheld, Janet Summers, Cynthia VerMilyea, planned and presented the very pleasing program.

Mrs. Bernard Joy, president, extended a welcome; Florence Anderson gave the Christmas Story from Luke and Matthew in flannel-graph; Jay Krimmel sang "O Holy Night," accompanied by Nancy Reynolds; children from the Home recited Bible verses in unison and, accompanied by Mrs. Colter, sang "O Come All Ye Children From Cot and From Hall," "He Is Sleeping," and "The Sweetest Song I Know." Soloists in the last song were Marion and Sherry Kahle.

The program closed with Santa's appearance, to the delight of the children, and presentation of a gift to each. As a special feature, a big Santa Claus cookie given each child proved to have a brand new quarter hidden beneath his beard.

Those Mysterious Men Are Puzzles for Women

MASCULINE MYSTERIES (at least they are mysteries to women): Why men, who are so experienced at losing things, are so poor at finding the things they misplace. Could it be because there is usually a woman handy to whom they can yell, "What did you do with my such-and-such?"

Why a man always feels poorer when his wife mentions wanting to buy something for the house than when a power tool or expensive piece of hunting or fishing equipment takes his eye.

Why a man thinks if a woman marries a man 10 years her junior, she is making a fool of herself but if a man marries a woman half his age he has done all right for himself.

Why a man whose first wife jumped at his command takes for a second wife some woman who can twist him around her little finger.

THE DOUBLE IMAGE OF THEIR SONS

How a man can manage to think of his son as two different ages—"a 16-year-old kid" when the son is asking for a privilege or more freedom, and "almost a man" when the son doesn't act as mature as he thinks he should.

How a man can feel he is being as solicitous of a tired wife by urging her to "let the dishes go tonight" as by offering to do them for her.

How a man can keep a really exciting bit of gossip to himself—when his wife tells him everything, even the things she promised "not to tell a soul."

How a man can forget even the most pressing problem long enough to play golf, fish for an afternoon or listen to a ball game. (All rights reserved, NEA Service, Inc.)

Adams reported Gospels for gifts had been ordered; it was stated the union has 47 members, including seven new ones and four honoraries. Members brought gifts to be sent to veterans.

Carol singing interspersed the program, which was presented by Mrs. Victor Landin in the form of a reading, "A Box for Sul Ling." The meeting closed with the benediction, followed by a gift exchange and a buffet supper.

Another Capacity Audience Grooms Annual Christmas Carol Festival

Once again the people of Warren have shown their appreciation of the efforts of young musicians of the community, and their directors, by filling to capacity the beautiful auditorium at Beaty Junior High School for the annual Christmas Carol Festival.

Last night's program proved another in a long line of such successful functions provided by the high school music department and Directors Carroll Fowler and Harry Summers, the audience greeting the program selections enthusiastically and gaily joining in the familiar carols which interspersed group numbers.

Gay red, white and green program covers and Christmas trees on the stage set the mood for the event, and clever lighting effects added much to the over-all presentation. One portion of the program was made doubly effective with a great stained glass window background done by Don Sagromoso and high floor torches holding cathedral candles.

As the audience assembled, Richard A. Sides, Trinity church organist and Conservatory faculty member, played a medley of seasonal organ music and, throughout the program which followed, added a new touch to this traditional holiday season event.

Massed on the stage for the opening carols and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas" were nearly 180 members of the orchestra, A Cappella Choir and Choraleers.

Special musical effects were noted in many of the instrumental and choral numbers and commendation on all sides indicated the quality of these performances is increasing with each passing year.

Heard as soloists in the choir numbers were Stanley Lindberg, Sue Hartnett, David Greenlund, Gale Scholes and Joyce Donaghy.

Adding greatly to the "Gloria in Excelsis" was a brass ensemble composed of Harold McNulty, Jack Beck, James Hewitt, Larry Olson and John Rapp, with Barbara Timm at the drums, and Mr. Sides at the organ console.

In the audience were many former choir members and these, with other singers, responded to Mr. Fowler's invitation to join in the great Hallelujah Chorus from "The Messiah" and the breath-taking "Silent Night! Holy Night!" which brought the evening to a close.

Conewango Twp. Officers Prove To Be Johnny On Spot

Law enforcement officers went from one accident to another last night as three occurred in chain series on Route 62 from 7 to 8 p. m.

Most serious happened near Akeley. Southbound Thomas Reaser, 33, of 825 West Fifth, and a car proceeding north and operated by Frank Johnson, 51, of 207 Dobson street, North Warren, sideswiped. Troopers estimated total damages at $700.

Conewango Township Officer Clayton Rhoades was informed of that accident as he investigated another near Metzger's Keystone Station on the Route 62 three lane in North Warren.

Fred Pace, 27, of 5 Clover street, North Warren, heading south on the three lane, slowed to make a turn into the station. Following him was a pickup truck operated by Leon J. Jordan of Route 1, Roulette, living temporarily in RD Irvine.

The truck driver thought Pace was about to turn in the opposite direction and attempted to pass him on the left. The Pace machine had $200 damages, the Jordan vehicle $100.

Officer Rhoades was summoned to that crash as he investigated a minor mishap at 7:20 p. m. when a young North Warren girl "blacked out" at the wheel and rammed into a New York Central railroad sign on the three lane near Bowladrome.

The township officer's "luck" in being at the accident scene continued from early Saturday morning when he was almost involved in a two-car mishap on the three lane near State Hospital bridge.

Louis F. Owen, 27, of 1318 Pennsylvania avenue west, started to pass the police cruiser at 1:45 a. m. and failed to notice a third southbound car slowing to turn over the bridge. According to police, Owen tried to nip through the space between the lead vehicle and oncoming traffic north.

He hit the front vehicle operated by Clifford Mealy, Tiona. The Owen car then careened off the highway, over the railroad tracks and finally ground to a halt east of Conewango Creek.

Owen will be charged with reckless driving. Damages amounted to $800.

High School Being Prepared For The Yuletide Holiday

Santa Claus' helpers have been diligently preparing Warren High School for the big Christmas holiday, according to today's report from the Dragonette news-writing class. The descriptive submitted by this group follows:

The building has been re-echoing with the sounds of Spanish, German, Latin, and even English Christmas Carols. The musical departments have been playing and singing Christmas music.

The halls are gaily decorated with posters, made by the art classes, announcing various Christmas activities. Student Council sponsored a dance and the members are busy putting up a Christmas tree in front of the school. Some of the homerooms have been decorated by ambitious students.

The Dragonette staff has been busy preparing the annual Christmas issue. Oh! Yes, the students are still working. All the Christmas preparations are being made during student's spare time!

Future Teachers of America will have a newspaper, "Teen Teachers Echo", which will come out on January 20th. Co-chairmen of the newspaper committee are Marilyn Haer and John Camigliano.

Rifle Club will fire at the Beaty range tonight.

Turkey Dinner Will "Cost" Less

Christmas dinner this year is likely to run into more cash per family, but on a basis of average earnings, it is going to be less expensive than 16 years ago.

And in quality and nutrition you get more for your money. Comparing prices with 1940, prior to America's entry into World War II and as the country was moving into a more prosperous era, a turkey dinner today is likely to cost up to $12.00, with all the trimmings, compared with around $8.00 in 1940.

But it took the average wage earner 12.2 hours in 1940 to earn the price of the dinner whereas the average wage earner needs to work only 6.3 hours for the 1956 dinner.

Turkey is higher per pound than in 1940, but smaller birds permit purchase of a size to fit exact family needs whereas 15 years ago the birds were larger. Also, the bulk of turkeys today are purchased over ready, with none of the waste which prevailed years ago.

In addition, improvement in food products generally has taken place since 1940. The white bread used in the turkey stuffing and served at the table is enriched, contributing essential vitamins and minerals in quantities not possible prior to 1941 when enrichment started.

Not only are numerous foods improved in processing, retaining more essential food elements, many of them today are delivered to the homemaker in such form as to reduce her kitchen labors, taking much of the drudgery out of all the work of preparing the Christmas meal.

The menu used to arrive at the figures above included turkey, tomato juice, ripe, green and stuffed olives, pickles, celery, cranberries, peas, potatoes, yams, lettuce salad and dressing, butter, bread for stuffing and at the table, pumpkin and mince pie, milk and coffee.

A dietitian has suggested, after such a meal, some bicarbonate of soda would be advisable. But isn't it wonderful to live in a country where most all families can overeat to such an extent!

BSE

Millions of women write this cryptic note on their calendars every month. It reminds them that this is the day to practice a life-saving technique.

You see, these are the fortunate women who saw our film BREAST SELF-EXAMINATION and learned a simple method of examining their breasts for possible signs of cancer. They learned, too, that most cancers are curable if discovered early and treated properly—that, indeed, many a woman has actually saved her own life by practicing BSE.

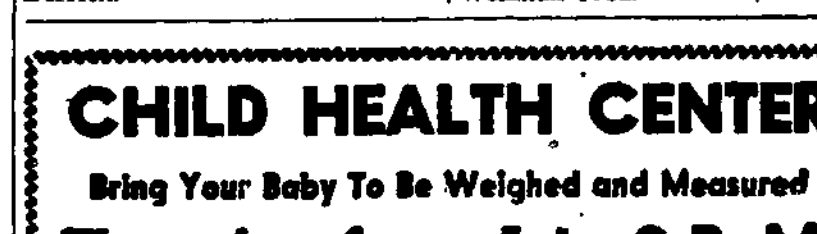

These millions of women recognize that cancer is a universal threat—and a personal responsibility. That's why they faithfully practice self-examination of the breasts once a month. The startling result is that 95% of all breast cancers are first discovered by women themselves.

But the present cure rate of 46% could be increased if more breast cancers were detected and treated early. That is why we urge every woman to see the film BREAST SELF-EXAMINATION. You can arrange to screen it at your club, your community center, at your plant or office. Just call the nearest unit of the American Cancer Society or write to "Cancer", in care of your local Post Office.

Changes in Social Security Laws Will Aid Disabled Tots

Disability provisions of the Social Security law will permit payments to certain disabled children effective January, 1957. Until this change in the law, Social Security payments to children terminated at the age of 18.

Under the new provisions of the Social Security law, disabled children 18 years of age and older may qualify for benefits based on the earnings of a retired or deceased parent.

The "children" now eligible to receive benefits may be of any age if they are unmarried, became disabled before they were 18, and have remained "totally" disabled ever since. To qualify for these benefits, a child 18 or over must be determined to be totally disabled for work. The child also must be dependent upon a parent, step-parent, or adopting parent who is entitled to Old-Age Insurance benefits under Social Security, or a child of a person who died after 1939 and was insured for survivor's benefits at the time of his or her death.

A significant feature of the disability part in the Social Security law is a requirement that the applicant be referred to a State Vocational Rehabilitation Agency. The Vocational Rehabilitation Agency will then be in a position to provide appropriate medical and vocational counsel to the handicapped. Applicants may not be paid disability benefits if they are offered vocational rehabilitation services and refuse those services without good cause.

Persons who believe they may qualify for benefits as a disabled child should contact a representative of the Social Security Administration. The District Office serving this area is located at 312 Hotel Jamestown Bldg., Jamestown, N. Y.

Community sign-up meetings have been completed and any Warren County Farmers who were unable to attend one of those meetings, may sign up in the County Office located in the Court House Annex.

Large Number of Extra Trains Put on by Pennsy for Holiday

Approximately 650 extra trains will be operated by the Pennsylvania Railroad within the next three weeks to accommodate the heavy holiday passenger travel and to "speed the millions upon millions of Yule cards and gift packages on their way," James W. Miller, passenger manager for the PRR's Northern Region at Buffalo, said today.

These trains will be in addition to the thousands of cars added to regularly scheduled trains.

Extra mail trains already are operating, as post office officials report that the public is heeding their pleas to mail early.

On the Northern Region the overnight trains between Erie and Buffalo and the east which normally are combined at Emporium now are operating separately to Harrisburg.

The peak of holiday mail and express traffic is expected about the middle of next week, Mr. Miller said. "Of course," he added, "mail and express will continue heavy right up to Christmas because we always have our last-minute shoppers with us."

Mr. Miller predicted that Christmas passenger travel will be exceptionally heavy this year because of many factories and offices closing for Christmas Eve. This long four-day holiday will make it possible for more people than ever to get home for Christmas.

Mr. Miller said the peak will come Friday, Dec. 21, when the majority of long-distance travelers will start homeward. He also said that Saturday, Dec. 22, and Sunday, Dec. 23, will see heavy travel and that Christmas Eve will be a heavy day for travel on daylight trains.

Weather conditions bring much holiday travel to the rails, Mr. Miller explained, adding that the variety of bargain fares offered for families, students, groups and servicemen also bring large numbers to the railroad at this time of year.

Mr. Miller pointed out that families traveling together can save up to 50 percent through the family plan; groups of three and groups of 25 or more students receive substantial reductions; furlough rates are in effect for servicemen, while other reduced fare plans are in effect in various parts of the PRR system.

PTA Councils Discuss Ways, Means To Raise Needed Funds

Ways and means of securing monies with which to finance the project occupied the greater part of the meeting held at Jefferson School by the Scholarship Fund Committee of the Warren Community and County PTA Councils. Chairman David Olson, principal at Jefferson, conducted the meeting.

Following discussion by the ways and means committee headed by James Francis, it was decided the expense would be too great to bring the Penn State Blue Band here for a benefit concert.

Miss Jane Masters reported the Warren Education Association wishes to join the PTA committee in establishing this Scholarship Fund and a cordial welcome was extended that teacher group.

It was decided both groups will sponsor a public card party in Beaty cafeteria January 21, with Mrs. Munch chairman, WEA in charge of prizes, tables and part of the refreshments; area PTA scholarship committees handling tickets, publicity, and remainder of the refreshments. Both local and area units will be asked to donate cakes for the affair.

In another line of endeavor, Mrs. O'Hara will plan a play for elementary school children after Easter.

A report by the qualifications committee outlined the following requirements for scholarship assistance:

1. Applicant must be a boy or girl, or both, in the year's graduating class, with no stipulation as to area district residence
2. Any Warren High graduating senior.
3. Student must be interested in the teaching profession.
4. A committee will review letters of application, which will include: (a) school rating, (b) needs, (c) 3 to 5 personal references, (d) a personal interview with the committee.
5. No specific college required for attendance, so long as it is certified for teacher-training.

Next meeting of this student aid committee will be held February 4.

Workman Is Found Dead on Lease in Watson Township

William H. Byers, of Endeavor, aged 51, employed by H. J. Allis & Son of Pleasantville, on their lease in Watson township, this county, died suddenly of a heart attack some time early Monday morning while walking from the pump house to the highway on Route 337, leading from the Hearts Content Road to Tidouette. Investigation by the coroner and Sheriff L. E. Linder indicated that Mr. Byers, who had complained earlier of being ill, had decided to return to his home. He was struggling up a steep incline when he apparently collapsed and fell forward. It was apparent he died instantly. He had declined an earlier offer from associates to assist him out of the woods.

Discovery of the death was made by John R. Conklin, Jr., Titusville, a salesman for the National Supply Co., who was driving by the scene when he observed the body of Mr. Byers.

Mr. Byers, who had resided at Endeavor for some years, was a well known oil driller in the Titusville area. He was born April 20, 1905, in Florence, Pa. He had been an Endeavor resident the past six years and formerly resided in Elwyn, Pa.

Mr. Byers was a son of the late William and Alice Maple Byers. He is survived by a son, Raymond Paul Byers, of Clarington; also four sisters.

I.C.C. Recommends Eastern Railroads Be Granted a Hike

Washington, (P)—An Interstate Commerce Commission examiner today recommended that a group of Eastern railroads be granted a 15 per cent increase in interstate first-class passenger fares, and a 5 per cent hike in coach travel rates.

Only yesterday in a separate case, the ICC authorized railroads serving much of the nation to raise their freight rates by an estimated $402,600,000 a year.

The examiner's recommendation as to passenger fares now goes to the ICC for its consideration.

The examiner, Oren G. Barber, rejected as unreasonable and possibly self-destructive proposals by some of the roads to raise the first-class rates by 45 per cent.

First-class rates are the basic charges in pullman and parlor cars.

The examiner said a hike of 45 per cent "could very well have the impact feared by certain protestants, that is, the elimination of first class passenger service thus impairing the ability to meet the needs of the national defense."

Tanya Is Back In Detroit After Wild Flight and Rescue

Detroit (P)—"We bring you presents," smiled Mrs. Elena Dieczok to her four-year-old son George.

"You bring me Tanya," answered George. "She is my present."

With that, two-year-old Tanya came home to Detroit, after a wild flight to England with her Iron Curtain bound father, and her subsequent rescue by British justice.

While Tanya fell asleep in the arms of her step-father, George Dieczok Sr., her mother Elena admitted, "We are tired."

Mrs. Dieczok and Tanya arrived by plane yesterday. British courts had taken Tanya from the hands of her father, Alexis Shvostov, and given her to the custody of her mother.

Shvostov, who had sought to take his daughter behind the Iron Curtain, continued on to southern Russia to visit his 91-year-old mother.

Shvostov had refused to give her up to Mrs. Dieczok last spring.

Clearfield Wrestlers Take Blue And White by 35 to 10 Score

The Dragon matmen were unable to come from behind to overcome the powerful Clearfield squad at the Red & Black gym last weekend, and as a result the Bison wrestling team made it two wins in two nights by knocking off Warren 35 to 10. The previous night Coach Art Weiss' grapplers blanked Brookway 48 to 0.

It was Clearfield all the way against the Dragons. The Bisons registered four falls, the fastest by Tom Vokes (165) at 1:49 of the first period. Clearfield also gained a default in the 154-pound class.

Mick Kondak had the only decision for the locals. Don Brian had his opponent in several serious positions but couldn't get enough points to win a decision. Harry Brooker was ahead on his opponent in points when the Clearfield man suffered an old football rib injury and was compelled to quit.

In the preliminaries Cumming and Colvin decimated their opponents while Jones and Schulman lost.

Brookfield Ball Club Getting Organized

Brookfield—Harold W. Shapiro of Philadelphia, who has been in the city for the past several days getting an organization together for his Brookfield Baseball club entry in the PONY league, announced last night that he had accepted an offer from the Chicago White Sox.

The offer, he stated, was tendered him by Glenn Miller, Chisox farm director, to train the Brookfield team with the Chicago A and B farmhands at Hollywood, Fla. The arrangement also calls for exhibition games.

Mr. Shapiro, who is getting the season ticket sale underway, said last night that they already are placed in a number of depots and that these, as well as other depots, will be announced next week.

Winning Team Not Criterion for the Judging of Coach

Philadelphia (AP) — The Ivy League, through Dr. Gaylord Harnwell, University of Pennsylvania president, has let it be known that a winning team will not be the principal criterion by which a football coach will be judged.

In announcing yesterday that Steve Sebo was being reappointed for another three years, Dr. Harnwell said he was being guided not only by "competence and performance but also personal character and integrity in keeping faith with established policies designed to further the university's essential educational purposes."

Sebo, whose first three-year tenure ended Thanksgiving Day when Penn lost to traditional foe Cornell 20-7, was coach through the darkest years in the Quakers' football history.

For two years, while Penn was slowly returning to its class after an ill-fated fling at big-time football, Penn teams failed to win a game. After dropping the opener to Penn State this year 34-0, the Red and Blue ended its 19-game losing streak with a 14-7 victory over Dartmouth. The squad, mostly sophomores and juniors, went to a 4-6 season.

It had been widely reported that

U. S. Davis Cup Players Surprised Over Ratings

Adelaide, Australia (AP) — United States Davis Cup players were surprised today by American tennis rankings which dropped Vic Seixas to third behind Hamilton Richardson and Herbie Flam.

Flam, of Beverly Hills, Calif., a member of the team, said "I should never have been placed ahead of Vic. I don't understand it."

Bill Talbert, U. S. Davis Cup Seixas would be number one. But I haven't studied the overall records fully."

Seixas of Philadelphia was philosophical over the announcement, saying, "I learned long ago not to get excited over such things. Besides, this is just the ranking committee's recommendations and not the final list."

after the loss to Cornell, the Big Red's only victory of the season, alumni groups were belligerently after Sebo's scalp.

Lions Claim Bears Player Guilty of Being Too Rough

By BEN PHILLEGAR
Detroit, (AP) — The Detroit Lions want Ed Meadows of the Chicago Bears barred for life from professional football. Meadows says he's innocent. Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League says the player is being crucified.

The charges and denials stem from Sunday's NFL Western title game when the Bears whipped the Lions 38-21 in Chicago.

Quarterback Bobby Layne, key to the Lions' offense, was smeared and injured on a play in the second quarter. He was out for the rest of the game. The Lions reported he suffered a brain concussion.

Edwin J. Anderson, president of the Lions, dispatched a three-page letter to Bell last night accusing Meadows. He asked that he be banned for life from the NFL and that the Bears and their coaches be fined.

Meadows, a 225 pounder who played his college ball at Duke, said in Chicago he might sue the Lions for defamation of character. He said the tackle that led to the injury was accidental and that he didn't know Layne had handed the ball away.

"He'll have to think of something better than that," Layne commented. "If he was fooled, he was the only one in the whole stadium that was."

Layne, who returned to Detroit with the team Sunday night, was pronounced in good shape by Detroit doctors.

Touring Jayhawks Still on Top of the Basketball Poll

By JACK HAND The Associated Press

The touring Kansas Jayhawks with Wiley Chamberlain, the seven-foot sophomore showing the way, remain atop the basketball poll as the No. 1 college team.

Sports writers and sportscasters voting in the weekly Associated Press poll gave Kansas an overwhelming margin with 68 first-place votes among the 98 cast. Only games through Saturday, Dec. 15, were considered.

San Francisco, which saw its record 60-game winning streak snapped last night by Illinois 62-33, clung to second place.

North Carolina picked up 12 firsts, more than anybody except Kansas, to move into third place.

Southern Methodist edged up a step to fourth with two firsts, followed by Illinois, Louisville, Kentucky, West Virginia, St. Louis and Kansas State. Kentucky's defeat by St. Louis cost them a few points in the standings.

West Virginia gained stature by defeating Duke for the Birmingham Classic championship. Duke had knocked off previously unbeaten Alabama in the first round.

The point totals, figured on the basis of 10 for the first, 9 for the second, etc., gave Kansas a bulging total of 864 to San Francisco's 582.

City League

In the YMCA City League last evening the Unknowns took the Westsiders by a score of 78 to 66, while the Emmies were walloping the V. of C. to the tune of 63 to 58. The scores:

Stationing of Cadet Teachers In Northern Area School Given Approval at Meeting of Board

According to a detailed report received from Northern Area Joint School Board's December session, the personnel committee has recommended stationing of practice teachers in the commercial department by Pennsylvania State University at the beginning of the second semester.

The matter was approved by the board and it was announced the fully-executed copy of the contract between the school system and Edinboro State Teachers College for the stationing of cadet teachers in the high school has been received by the supervising principal's office.

Floyd Marsh, personnel chairman, presented the nomination of Mrs. Helen Anderson, Sugar Grove, for the position of substitute elementary school secretary in the Lander Grade School.

Also given attention by the board was a report by Howard Thompson, guidance director, concerning an achievement test recently given to seniors and showing attainment of a mercantile rank of 75 in comparison with other students of 225 high schools throughout 35 states.

Mrs. Hazel Kays, secretary, presented the financial report and approval was given payment of $8,705.18 for high school bills and $1,668.25 for elementary schools. Also reported was a special reimbursement of $1,288 for driver education, received from the department of Public Instruction.

Mention was made of a resolution adopted at the November meeting, concerning a hazardous highway intersection, and it was reported the highway department will begin work in the spring to correct the condition. Until this can be done, the board is making arrangements for a special "turn-about" which will change the direction from which the bus will proceed through the intersection.

It was also decided to address a similar resolution to the department concerning another hazardous point.

In regard to earlier meetings in Warren to discuss proposed legislation governing regional school supervision, Supervising Principal Everett Landin was instructed to get specific answers the board would like before such a bill is recommended to the legislature.

Members considered the report of the Industrial Appraisal Company, employed to evaluate school facilities for insurance purposes, and adopted the value placed by the firm.

Harold Landin, high school principal and dedication committee chairman, presented a detailed report concerning planned festivities for the week of April 8 and was given the board's approval. The committee was also instructed concerning work to be done in preparation for the event.

Albert Lyford, music supervisor, was authorized to extend an invitation to the Northwest District Band committee to hold its 1958 convention at Eisenhower High. Athletic Director Fred S. Bauer presented a financial report of the 1956 football season, showing a balance of $335.95; Francis Johnson, county speech therapist, had submitted a report of problems revealed in each school of the district, and these were considered by the board.

Next regular board meeting will be January 9.

Colliers and The Home Companion Will Be Suspended

New York (AP)—Collier's and the Woman's Home Companion, familiar magazines in millions of homes for more than half a century, will disappear from the American scene next month.

A company official indicated that a seeming paradox—rising circulation offset by increasing publishing costs and dwindling advertising revenues—signaled the end of the two magazine giants.

The 15-member Board of Directors of Crowell-Collier Publishing Co. wrote the death notice last night by voting to discontinue publication.

Paul C. Smith, company president and board chairman, said the two magazines, with a combined circulation of nearly 8½ million, lost more than 7½ million dollars this year.

He blamed it on increasing costs and declining revenue from advertisements despite a peak or near peak circulation for both, periodically.

Affected were some 2,600 employees, more than half of whom faced a jobless future in less than a month.

The board's "primary duty" to the stockholders "to protect their investment" resulted in the decision, said Smith. It withdrew Crowell-Collier from the magazine field, leaving the firm with its profit-making book publishing business.

Colliers, a bi-monthly general magazine with an announced circulation of 4,179,700, will cease with the Jan. 4 issue. The Companion, with a circulation of 4,228,800, ends publication with the January number.

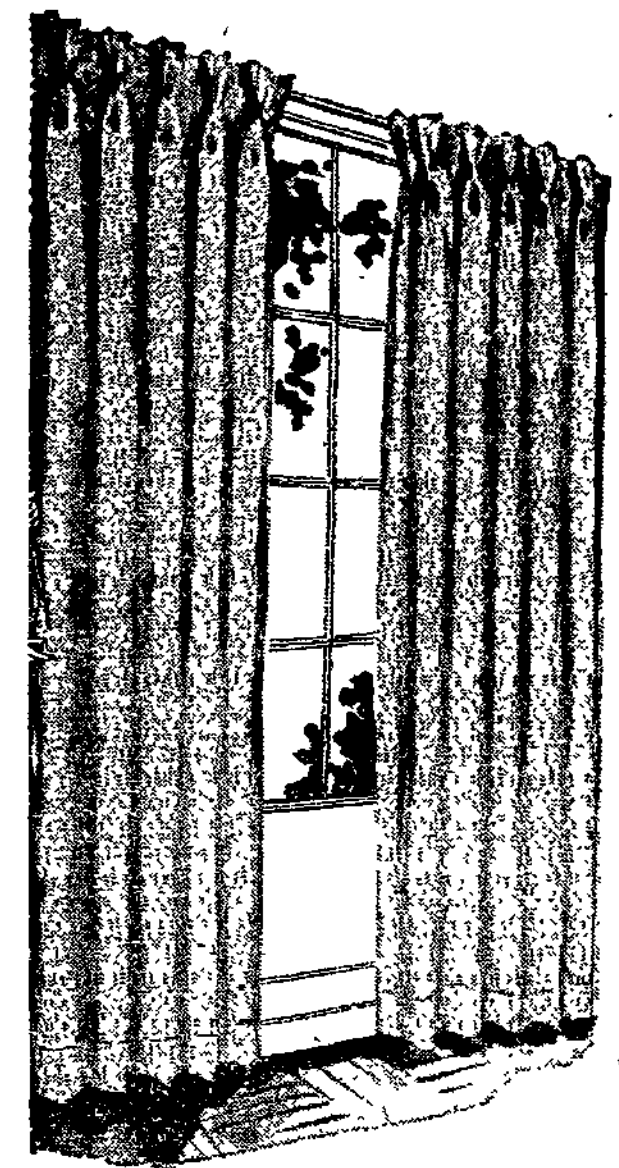

Gardner Cowles, president of Cowles Magazine, Inc., simultaneously announced an agreement under which Look magazine will take over the unexpired subscriptions of Colliers.

The Crowell-Collier statement said arrangements were being made to divert the Companion's subscriptions to other publishers. The company discontinued the
